

ADA UNIVERSITY
Honor Code

I. Mission

The ADA University is a community of students, staff, faculty and administrators united by the common goal of promoting excellence in education, research and service. ADA University strives to provide state-of-the-art facilities and excellent environment for its community members to engage in an inspiring and dynamic learning process. The University places a high value and emphasis on the academic success and achievements of its community members.

However, this must be achieved only in an environment guided by academic honesty, integrity, and a commitment to personal and mutual accountability.

The University's philosophy is centered on the idea that academic integrity and honesty should be promoted not by the use of sanctions and threats, but rather, by instilling an academic culture that embraces these values in their own right. During the pre-curriculum phase, incoming students will devote a considerable length of time discussing generally accepted standards of academic integrity so as to avoid any possible misunderstandings or unintended violations of the codes of proper academic conduct.

The Honor Code contains a list of academic rules and procedures essential to guiding the conduct of students, staff, faculty and administrators alike. The sanctions contained in this guide are intended only as a last resort, allowing ADA University to defend itself and its reputation against violations of these generally accepted standards of proper academic conduct.
