No. 4013: Fall and Spring Semesters

ADA University charges a flat tuition for full time registration both for undergraduate and graduate studies. Students pay 50 percent of the annual tuition and 50 percent of the annual student fees per semester. For details, see Appendices.

One course beyond the full-time registration is permitted during the Fall and Spring semesters, based on academic performance, without any additional charge. A credit bearing internship, regardless of which semester it is attempted in, is also included in the flat tuition.

- Readmitted students pay the tuition and student fee that are in effect in the year, in which they have been readmitted.
- Part-time graduate student’s annual tuition equals some two-thirds of the annual tuition of a full-time student for relevant academic year. A graduate student’s fee status as part-time or full-time is determined based on the number of credit hours registered for at the end of the add/drop period and will not be affected by any changes in credit hours thereafter.

- Last year undergraduate students (classification 40) will be charged per course (10 percent of their annual tuition rate per course) if they take 2 classes and less. The rule is applied only for tuition fee, the student fee must be covered each registered term separately.
- If the graduate student prolongs the thesis submission for more than 2 terms. In according to academic rules and regulations that student must register to the course one more time, which means the term charge will be applied to the student account.

No. 4014: Summer Term

All students are charged additional tuition per course taken in Summer Term. Regardless of the credit load they take, they will be charged a tuition per below rates:

- Undergraduate students pay 10 percent of their annual tuition rate per course.
- Graduate students pay 12.5 percent of their annual tuition rate per course.
- EAPP students pay 1500 AZN fee per level and 650 AZN fee per course.

There are no Student Fee charged for the summer term.

Graduate student admitted in September 2019 and thereafter, as well as Undergraduate students of the Law Program can take one Summer course for free if it is indicated in their Program of Studies.

No. 4015: Tuition and Fee Increase

Tuition and student fee are normally adjusted annually, based on an increase in cost of education and changes in inflation. Despite these increases, ADA University has managed to keep the cost of education at affordable rates.

We have managed to discount the total cost of education across all programs. Furthermore, the total fee will not increase during the academic years starting in September 2017 and 2018.

As of September 2016:

- Graduate and undergraduate students, admitted in September 2016 and thereafter, will pay further years' tuition and student fee as per schedule indicated in the Tuition and Fee table.
- Undergraduate students admitted prior to September 2016 will continue paying their tuition and student fees, as defined during their admission year.

Annual increases after September 2020 will be determined in advance and made public no later than the beginning of the calendar year, when a potential increase in tuition rates may occur.
